uneral of Mrs. Walter A. Ingalis-Confirmation Class-Local Men

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Mary Ann Denison, wife of Walter A. Ingalis, were held at the Third Baptist church, of which Mrs. Ingalis was for so many years a respected member, on Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The large attendance of relatives and friends was a testimonial of the love and esteem in which she was held. Rev. Joseph A Very, pastor of the church, impressively conducted the services, speaking feelingly of her blameless life and of her influence for good throughout the community. Beau tiful Isle of Somewhere, Shadows, and Shall We Gather at the River, were sung by a quartette comprising Miss Lillian Austin, Mrs. John R. Lewis, Stephen E. Peckham and H. I. Peckham,

These members of the church acted as bearers: Amos A. Baldwin, Alfred S. Tefft, Sterling Nelson and John R. Lewis. Among the beautiful floral remembrances were a wreath, with the word Mother, from the children; a sheaf of wheat, from the children; a the word Mother, from the children; a sheaf of wheat from the husband; a wreath bearing the words, At Rest, from the church, and a bouquet from Mr and Mrs. Charles Twist. Burial was in the family plot in the Hickory street cemetery, where Rey, Mr. Very read a committal service, Undertaker C. A. Gager, Jr., was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Among the relatives and friends present from out of town were Mrs. Ameija Williams of New London, Chester A. Ingalls of Boston, Lucius Brown of Colchester, Mrs. Lillian Frissell of Ballouville, Edwin Appley and Mrs. Nellie Geer of Jewett City.

Raymond Clark of Preston Had Sev-

While he was feeding the horses at his home in Preston on Thursday afternoon about 5 o'clock, Raymond Clark, the 19 year old son of Samuel Clark, was kicked in the mouth by one of the animals. A number of teeth were broken by the blow and his lip was badly cut, requiring several stitches. Mr. Clark was rendered unconscious for several minutes. The injuries were very painful and his suffering was so great on Friday that just how many of his teeth were broken off and how badly could not be definitely decided upon Mr. Clark is confined to his bed for the present.

Mr. Clark, who conducts a milk route, is a popular and industrious young man and his many friends regret at hear of his painful misfortune.

At Sacred Heart church, Norwich Town, this (Saturday) morning there is to be a month's mind mass for Miss nue, who is employed in the People's store, is planning to enter the employ of Shea & Burke at their local store about March 1.

Briefs and Personals. Miss Grinnell of Providence came on Thursday to visit her cousin, Mrs. Philo Hard, at her home on Washington street.

Following the visit here last week of an inspector of electric wiring from the New England Insurance Exchange, notices have been received by Norwich fire insurance policy holders of changes and repairs which must be made in their wiring to conform to the requirements of the exchange. This week the Norwich people have had local electrical workers making the changes which the board called for. John Luther of Springfield, Mass., comes to his home on Town street to-day (Saturday) to stay until after Washington's birthday.

Mrs. Jacob Renner of West Town is packing her goods and preparing to move to Hartford, where her husband has secured permanent employment. The water motor which runs the or-gan of the First church became out of order during the last freezing weather. After several hours of work it is again in good condition.

G. Warren Davis Spoke.

Groton grange, No. 176, P. of H., held a regular session Friday night. The chief feature of the meeting was an address by G. Warren Davis of Norwich, who is lecturer of New London County Pomoma grange, No. 6, on the subject of Institutes. The degree team had a drill during the evening, and a basket lunch was served at the close of the meeting. Because of the ice, about half the usual number were present at the Thursday evening meeting of the First church. The treacherous walking caused several bad falls during the afternoon and evening.

The last rain and thaw which sent the ice out of the Yantic river caused it to carry with it all the mooring runs at the Chelsea Boat club house. Last year these were not pulled up at all by the loa.

The primary room of the Town street school has held no session during this week. In the junior and intermediate rooms there has been only one daily session because of the small all by the loa.

the application late Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Comstock was removed by a vote of four members of the board at its session, called for that purpose on February 12. The board is made up of six men and four of these believed that when Comstock moved into the town of Montville in May, 1909, he became a resident of that town and was no longer a resident of Waterford. The applicant's contention is that it has never been his intention of establishing a residence in Montville and that he resides temporarily.

Judge Gardiner Greene, on Friday, set Friday, March 4, as the date for the school committee to appear in the superior court at Norwich and answer the demand to show cause for removal. Deputy Sheriff Woods Friday afternoon served notice on the school committee.

Is your husband, wife, sweetheart or friends untrue? Is your home a happy one? Are you estranged from each other? Has your married life been all you wished? Does your wife love you as when first you were wed? Is your husband as tender, as thoughtful of your welfare, as in the days of the honeymoon? If not, Prof. Althon's advice is needed. HAPPINESS is the most essential possession of life. Without it you cannot be beautiful. Without it you cannot be beautiful. Without it you cannot be successful, either in business or social undertaking. Remember,

If you are unhappy, hapless, sick, deceased, melancholy and nervous an pressed, melancholy and nervous and everything going againse you, come to me, and I will show a way to improve your affairs. If I cannot nelp you, I do not accept your money. Gold is net my GOG. Nor am I the god of GOCLD. But I am a lover of lustice and I would like to see justice done to one and all. I will extend to one and all. I will extend to one and all a cordial invitation to call and consult me, and if their intentions are fair they will depast thoroughly salisfied that there is one person who has a kindly feeling towards humanity.
